Sir,

Sub: Implementation of Indian Custom EDI
System 1.5 (ICES 1.5) at New Custom House

Ref : This office No.TM/CA/EDI/System/6529 of 10-11 dated 11th November 2010

-----

In the meeting held with the Port Users on 11th November, 2010, the issue of implementation of EDI System 1.5 (ICES 1.5) was discussed at length. As there will be a stoppage of messages from the Customs during the intervening period, it was agreed to adopt the following alternative arrangements :

- (i) Shipping Agents to submit IGM both in soft and hard copy. The hard copy submitted should be duly signed by the Shipping Agents and the Customs.
- (ii) Amendments to the Item/IGM, submission of Console IGM, High Seas Sale Deed Agreements, additional entry, Bill of Entry etc. should be submitted in hard copy duly signed by the Customs. Manual Bill of Entry if any should be submitted duly signed by the Customs.
- (iii) Customs Out of Charge should be submitted in original
- (iv) CHAs to submit Shipping Bills both in soft copy and hard copy duly signed by the CHAs. In case of manual Shipping Bill, the same should be submitted duly signed by the Customs. Amendments to Shipping Bill, if any, to be submitted duly signed by the Customs.
- (v) Let Export Order to be submitted in original.
